

The Vestry is very pleased to announce that the Reverend Lu-Anne Conner has been called as the new Rector of the Episcopal Church of the Transfiguration

The Reverend Lu-Anne Conner comes to Transfiguration from Christ Episcopal Church in Gardiner, Maine where she is serving as Transition Priest-in-Charge. Lu-Anne previously served as Rector of St Andrew's Episcopal Church, Newcastle, Maine and as Associate Rector at St Elizabeth's Episcopal Church, Ridgewood, New Jersey. Her experience has been in both large and medium size parishes, expanding Christian education programs, serving as a mentor to young acolytes and confirmands, recruiting and supporting lay leaders, and guiding parishes through challenging periods of change. Lu-Anne will begin her ministry with us on September 1st. Lu-Anne is married to Kate McCormick, a retired journalist and active community volunteer. Lu-Anne is a native of Boston and Kate grew up in Indianapolis.

Join us in welcoming Lu-Anne and Kate to Transfiguration

Your Search Committee and the entire Vestry have been working faithfully for 11 months searching for a new Rector, reviewing candidates from through-out the Episcopal Church. This search came to fruition during June after interviewing final recommended candidates and spending many hours in discernment. We believe the Holy Spirit guided and instructed us along this path and know that the entire congregation had us in their prayers.

Ron Howden-Senior Warden