The Mission of Church of the Transfiguration
is to be a Christian community;
accepting and inviting all persons to share in worship,
witness and service; as disciples of Jesus Christ in the world.

What's So Special about Holy Saturday?

Egeria, the 4th-century nun who wrote about her pilgrimage to the Holy Lands, didn't report on a service on Holy Saturday. Given the marathon services that had taken place starting on Palm Sunday, and that everyone was in a two-day fast in preparation for the Easter Vigil, it's not surprising that there wasn't a service. Only two ancient liturgies, one from 7th century France and the other from 8th century Milan, have a service. Both used readings from Genesis about the Flood, and the account of Jesus' burial from Matthew. Both also included elements from the burial rites of the Church.

In continuation with these medieval services, the Anglican Communion is one of the very few Christian denominations that has a Holy Saturday service. In the first Book of Common Prayer (1549), the second reading was from 1 Peter 3:17-22 in which Jesus goes to the place of the dead to share the good news of the Gospel with those who died in the Flood. Jesus' descent to the dead (part of the Apostles' Creed), often referred to as the Harrowing of Hell, is also in view in the reading that we use in our service (1 Peter 4:1-8). Our 1979 BCP restored the name of the day to "Holy Saturday" and uses the Sarum (Salisbury) tradition of reading the burial account from John's gospel. Then, using part of our Rite II burial liturgy, we remember Jesus' burial and, by doing so, connect our burial liturgy with this day in Holy Week.

This service is an invitation, according to the Collect, to wait with Jesus on this holy Sabbath (day of rest from work) for his resurrection from the dead.

O God, Creator of heaven and earth: Grant that, as the crucified body of your dear Son was laid in the tomb and rested on this holy Sabbath, so we may await with him the coming of the third day, and rise with him to newness of life; who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

People Amen.

THE LESSONS

1 A Reading from the Book of Lamentations 3:1-9, 19-24

1 I am one who has seen affliction
under the rod of God's wrath;
he has driven and brought me
into darkness without any light;
against me alone he turns his hand,
again and again, all day long.

He has made my flesh and my skin waste away,
and broken my bones;
he has besieged and enveloped me
with bitterness and tribulation;
he has made me sit in darkness
like the dead of long ago.

He has walled me about so that I cannot escape;
he has put heavy chains on me;

though I call and cry for help,
he shuts out my prayer;
he has blocked my ways with hewn stones,
he has made my paths crooked.

The thought of my affliction and my homelessness
is wormwood and gall!

My soul continually thinks of it
and is bowed down within me.

But this I call to mind,
and therefore I have hope:

The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.

"The LORD is my portion," says my soul,
"therefore I will hope in him."

People Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
Thanks be to God.

Officiant As the assigned readers read the Psalm, everyone else is invited to read along silently.

Psalm 31:1-5 In te, Domine, speravi BCP, pp 622

1 In you, O LORD, have I taken refuge;
let me never be put to shame; *
deliver me in your righteousness.

2 Incline your ear to me; *
make haste to deliver me.

3 Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me safe,
for you are my crag and my stronghold; *
for the sake of your Name, lead me and guide me.

4 Take me out of the net that they have secretly set for me, *
for you are my tower of strength.
1 Into your hands I commend my spirit, *
for you have redeemed me,
O LORD, of God of truth.

2 A Reading from the First Letter of Peter 4:1-8

2 Since Christ suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same intention (for whoever has suffered in the flesh has finished with sin), so as to live for the rest of your earthly life no longer by human desires but by the will of God. You have already spent enough time in doing what the Gentiles like to do, living in licentiousness, passions, drunkenness, revels, carousing, and lawless idolatry. They are surprised that you no longer join them in the same excesses of dissipation, and so they blaspheme. But they will have to give an accounting to him who stands ready to judge the living and the dead. For this is the reason the gospel was proclaimed even to the dead, so that, though they had been judged in the flesh as everyone is judged, they might live in the spirit as God does.

The end of all things is near; therefore be serious and discipline yourselves for the sake of your prayers. Above all, maintain constant love for one another, for love covers a multitude of sins.

3 A Reading from the Gospel of John 19:38-42

3 Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, though a secret one because of his fear of the Jews, asked Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission; so he came and removed his body. Nicodemus, who had at first come to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds. They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it with the spices in linen cloths, according to the burial custom of the Jews. Now there was a garden in the place where he was crucified, and in the garden there was a new tomb in which no one had ever been laid. And so, because it was the Jewish day of Preparation, and the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

THE FUNERAL ANTHEM:

The funeral anthem "In the midst of life" is used in place of the Prayers of the People.
(BCP, pg 492)

Officiant Please unmute your microphones and join in the responses as you are able.

4 In the midst of life we are in death;
from whom can we seek help?
From you alone, O Lord,
who by our sins are justly angered.

People Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy and merciful Savior,
deliver us not into the bitterness of eternal death.

4 Lord, you know the secrets of our hearts;
shut not your ears to our prayers,
but spare us, O Lord.

People Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy and merciful Savior,
deliver us not into the bitterness of eternal death.

4 O worthy and eternal Judge,
do not let the pains of death
turn us away from you at our last hour.

People      Holy God,
Holy and Mighty,
Holy and merciful Savior,
deliver us not into the bitterness of eternal death.

The service concludes with the Lord's Prayer and the Grace.

All pray together, with only the assigned voices praying out loud. Everyone else prays along silently.

Officiant      And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

1              Our Father, who art in heaven,
                 hallowed be thy Name,
                 thy kingdom come,
                 thy will be done,
                 on earth as it is in heaven.

2              Give us this day our daily bread.

3              And forgive us our trespasses,
                 as we forgive those
                 who trespass against us.

4              And lead us not into temptation,
                 but deliver us from evil.

1              For thine is the kingdom,
                 and the power, and the glory,
                 for ever and ever. Amen.

THE GRACE

Officiant      The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore.

People              Amen.

No blessing or dismissal is added.

Please depart the digital space in silence in keeping with the solemnity of the day.
